The student tuition fees as published above are subject to change given individual circumstances at the time of enrolment

- To receive a Skills First subsidy, you must first meet the Skills First Program student eligibility criteria and provide supporting evidence of your eligibility.
- To be eligible for the Concession Tuition Fee rate, applicants must be holders of a current & valid concession card at the time of enrolment.
- The Materials and Student Services & Amenities fees are in addition to the applicant's tuition fees.
- <sup>1</sup>Student uniform fee includes GST. <sup>2</sup>These fees do not attract GST.
- Applicants will be provided with an itemised quote called a Statement of Fees at the time of attending the Pre-Training Review.
- Applicants seeking to apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) should refer to the ERA Student handbook for direction and the Additional Fees and Charges table below for costs.
- Payment plans are available and apply to the tuition fee + industry activity fee only. All other published fees above are required to be paid prior to commencement of the program.
- Applicants who are ineligible for Government Funding and are deemed Fee for Service, automatically enter into a payment plan for the tuition fee only. All other published fees above are required to be paid prior to commencement of the program.
- <sup>3</sup>Additional charges relevant to the ERA program – please refer to the next page for further details.
- Students who would have difficulty meeting the financial obligations of the ERA AHA Program (HLT43021) can apply for ERA Fee Assistance. If approved, students would have the above Materials, Administration, and Student Services & Amenities fees waived. Tuition Fees would still be payable. For students who receive a university subsidy, ERA Fee Assistance will cover non-tuition fees excluding the university subsidy. An application for ERA Fee Assistance is made as part of an application for the ERA AHA program (HLT43021). ERA Fee Assistance prioritises applications for financial support from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, and those with a disability.
